Dr. McIntyre's Views On Rural Mail Delivery

A Hell Of Flames B.C. Doesn't Control Fishing

Detroit, Oct. 16.—Twenty-one known dead, with scores of others missing, and probably dead, a dozen or more who escaped with their lives but badly burned, two small towns wiped out, many others in imminent danger, scores of farm houses burned, millions of dollars worth of property destroyed, all this is today's record of the forest fire in Northern Michigan. That greater destruction of property will follow, and that many more lives undoubtedly have been lost, is practically certain. Those who are known to be dead, were all residents of Metamora, Presque Isle county, in the southwestern part of the lower peninsula. Fifteen of them were burned to death when a relief train carrying refugees from the village of Metz was derailed right in the centre of a hell of flames.

Vancouver, Oct. 16.—Judge Howay at Westminster today quashed the conviction against John Kenhill, fisherman, who was hauled before court several weeks ago on charges of contravention of the new provincial fishery laws. Judge Howay declared that it was chiefly shown that the provincial authorities had no right whatever to attempt to control the waters of Fraser river, the Privy Council having established Dominion control to all the inland waters. This decision was flatly agreed to by the subjects of the legislation.

BALKAN TROUBLES.

Paris, Oct. 16.—There is much satisfaction in government circles over the conclusion as announced today from London of a program for the international conference that is to settle the existing Balkan difficulty. The accuracy of the London announcement of this program is confirmed officially here. Foreign Minister Deland said that France was particularly gratified that this crisis had been the means of cementing the French-Russian alliance.

London, Oct. 16.—Every desire to arrive at an understanding, regarding at the same time the interests of Turkey has been shown. In the first place, Russia wanted the right to send warships through the straits in time of peace, that is to say, when Turkey was not at war, under special conditions and special restrictions. In the same right Britain asked that the straits should be accorded all nations. To this Russia demurred, urging that foreign warships could only be sent to enter the Black Sea for the purpose of enforcing international law, and that the rights of ingress and egress granted Russian warships should be accorded on the same condition to the ships of any other power not at war with Russia.

Sofia, Oct. 16.—A disagreeable impression has been produced in diplomatic circles here by a circular issued today from the Bulgarian minister of justice, which orders that in future the subjects of foreign powers in Bulgaria shall be treated on the same basis as natives; in other words, they are no longer to enjoy the intermediary of their consuls. The circular sets forth that the declarations of Bulgarian independence in 1878, which annulled the so-called capitulations which exempted foreigners from the jurisdiction of local courts. The diplomatic representatives of one of the great powers described this circular as a definite handed action, to which the powers would take a vigorous counter-stroke. This tendency of Bulgaria to extricate herself from treaty obligations in ways that are not popular will lead the powers to insist upon the retention of the capitulations for a definite period, as one of the conditions to the recognition of Bulgarian independence.

TO PREVENT CROOKEDNESS

"At the Roblin meeting on Wednesday night Mr. Day made a statement that he discovered a notoriety election crook at work in the election of the constituency when he proposed to have looked up to it took $25,000 to do it. Party capital is being made of Mr. Day's statement against Dr. McIntyre. We are authorized by the leading Liberals of Strathcona to ask Mr. Day to give information on the subject in his possession and they are ready and willing to cooperate with him in bringing the supposed crook or justice. The story given out by Mr. Day was new to the Liberals of Strathcona, who are as anxious as he for a clean and fair election."

The Ministerial in its issue of yesterday makes the above statement. The following telegram has been received from the Premier which indicates Dr. McIntyre's position:

Edmonton, Alta., Oct. 16, '08.

Mr. R. W. Day, Strathcona, Alberta. I observe in report of your address in Strathcona Wednesday night that you allude there is an election crook at work in Strathcona constituency. This man and others, you stated, are here to start the constituency. If you will name the man and by whom he is being aided, we will be glad to have an information as to the whole machinery of the government will be placed at your disposal for the prosecution of said persons.

A. C. RUTHERFORD, Premier.

In answer thereto the following letter has been sent to Dr. McIntyre:

Oct. 17, 1908.

Hon. A. C. Rutherford,

Edmonton, Alta.

Dear Sir:—In conversation with Mr. Day, yesterday, he referred to a matter that had been mentioned in his address of the evening before, and requested me to write to the Attorney-General, as the one in charge of the administration of justice in this province concerning it.

I did not get the letter last yesterday, and this morning have received your telegram of yesterday, so Mr. Day conversing the same matter and asking for the name of the man and information. Your telegram reads as though things were in shape to lay a criminal information. I regret this is not so, or we would have laid the information at once.

Your information which we are very glad to give is as follows:—Mr. Harpell, who is notorious in Ontario for his connection with the ballot box frauds and who is probably known by you, is, we are informed, at present located at Wainwright. Our information is that he is taking an active part in the preparation of voters' lists, and has been making steps to have people who have been in the country for the legal period, naturalized, and is included in the list of voters at Wainwright.

A number of those who come to Wainwright to vote, he is also offering inducements as money public, etc. A number of people with a view to increasing his influence, and he is working now.

with the Conservatives, but with the supporters of Dr. McIntyre, and as he had authority from the government to do what he is doing.

Mr. Day said from the platform as well as privately that he does not believe that he is doing any of this with the knowledge of Dr. McIntyre. You will see from this that Mr. Day is in the unfortunate position of being absolutely convinced that crooked work is being done, and in contemplation of the fact that he is in a position to lay any information as yet, and his request is that the matter be taken up by the provincial authorities and provincial detectives sent to inquire in the matter, and if this man Harpell is the man who we are informed he is this his authority if he has any connection with the voters' lists be cancelled, and that he be disavowed.

I would call your attention to the fact that if this crooked work is in contemplation there is no part of the doing where it could be more successfully carried out than in the neighborhood of Wainwright and east of it. The country is very sparsely settled. There are a large number of polling stations, and being on the line of the new G.T.P. there are a large number of new men and it is quite possible for any person who is inclined to do crooked work to bring in a large number of people who have no right to take any part in this election by representing them as 400 and railway employees, and you will recognize the difficulty at this stage, if any such attempt is made, is being made of our being able to ascertain whether they have any qualification as voters.

Mr. Day simply requests the assistance of the provincial government in the way stated through the detection and police protection to prevent what he believes are the contemplated illegal acts, and we further assure you that the moment we receive any more definite information it will be immediately communicated to you.

Yours very truly,

JOHN R. LAYELL, (Signat.)

In the view of the Chronicle the Provincial Government are bound if they desire the public to believe in their sincerity:

1. To disavow and disavow "MICKY HARPELL."
2. To publish large posters through out the province in every convenient place narrating the facts and emphasizing the fact that detected crooks will be rigorously prosecuted by the Attorney-General.

3. To flood the outlying districts with police and detectives to enforce the law.

We do not for a moment believe that our respected fellow citizen, Dr. McIntyre, personally contemplates any crookedness, but we do know that the machine is rather a good one for a leader to kick and will stop at nothing.

Further, Mr. Duncan Marshall, the crank of the Liberal machine in this province and his Ontario associates are such as to give him to not it mildly, recalcitrant ideas of what constitutes clean campaigning.

McGillicuddy Italians Mix On Trial In Edmonton

Calgary, Oct. 16.—The court room was crowded this morning to hear the preliminary of the McGillicuddy trial. R. Taylor and Odonel Walker were the acting justices, Nolan acted for Edwards and Clifford Jones for McGillicuddy. Three lineotype operators testified that they had set up the letter signed "Nolan" and that it was written in a hand they would swear was McGillicuddy's. News editor Quayle said the correspondence did not go through him, that McGillicuddy had handled it. He saw the manuscript in the hands of the printers and it resembled McGillicuddy's writing in some particular. The business manager Hammond, said that a thousand paper had been sent to a man named Campbell in Edmonton and same to Fisher Brandon, but he did not know, by whose orders. The justices heard the accused to appear for trial for criminal libel at the supreme court on November third. Bail was set at five thousand dollars.

About ten o'clock last evening, says the Journal, three Italians who have been living on a shack on the King Powell estate became engaged in a general brawl, with the result that one of them with an unmanageable name lies in the hospital with a fractured skull. It appears that one of them had been irritating another throughout the evening, and at last driven to desperation the man picked up some blunt instrument and struck his tormentor over the head, rendering him unconscious.

The police were immediately notified and the injured man was removed to the public hospital, where Dr. Farquharson attended him, pronouncing his skull fractured, but that he will recover. The police then went as the trail of the man who had perpetrated the deed, and about twelve o'clock rounded up an Italian whom they have reasons to believe is the guilty party.

The men had been living on the King Powell estate for some time, a lot of them have had made all preparations for going out on a homestead, having their wagon already packed for an early start in the morning when the brawl occurred which upset their plans, put one of them in the hospital and the other in jail.

The accused will probably come up for a preliminary hearing this morning.

A HEARTY WELCOME

Tokio, Oct. 16.—Some time between dawn and dawn on Saturday, Oct. 17, the United States fleet of sixteen battleships escorted by a squadron of Japanese war vessels, will swing around Hachigiyama, into the beautiful harbor of Yokohama; sixteen welcoming men of war will salute, and 360 bands will voice the sentiment of the whole people of Japan. The first scene of the first act of the week's engagement of the American fleet in Japan will doubtless be the most impressive, but every number on the long program, carefully prepared and as carefully rehearsed, will be new evidence that the welcome found in Japan has been unexpected, unequalled perhaps, by any of the hearty welcomes extended to it since it left the Atlantic seaboard.

Sixteen Japanese war vessels are even now awaiting the ships at their bows and throughout the visit each battleship will have officers and men representing the entertaining emperor and people at its beck and call.

BLOWS UP.

Vancouver, Oct. 16.—A careless workman this morning dropped a match in the powder magazine at Cumberland mine, Vancouver Island, and another man stepping on it caused an explosion. Four men were injured, but none were killed. Half the windows in the village were shattered and the loss will total five or six thousand dollars.

Rev. Canon Tucker will preach in Holy Trinity Church at the Sunday evening service.

The following interesting item is from the Ministerial: "We understand that at the end of the present month the Chronicle will cease its daily publication and come out semi-weekly." Our contemporary has secured a scoop as we have heard nothing of the matter, and unless the paper is to be suppressed by this provincial government we fancy we would have had some knowledge of any impending changes and we have not heard a word.

A mass meeting in connection with the Laymen's Missionary Movement, will be held in Knox Presbyterian Church on Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. The meeting will be addressed by Rev. Canon Tucker, General Secretary of the Church of England, Missionary Society, and Rev. W. F. Strathcona, superintendent of missions of the Baptist Church. Every body is cordially invited.

SOON RECAPTURED

Calgary, Oct. 16.—Oscar Bye, a negro prisoner, escaped from the barracks very early yesterday morning, but did not enjoy his liberty very long. Shortly after tea o'clock last night he was captured on the flats across the river, in the neighborhood of Nose Creek. At the time of his capture he did not appear to be heading in any particular direction. He had succeeded in obtaining a change of clothes from some person, but he did not make any resistance when he was recaptured. He was caught by men who were not members of the R. N. W. M. and their names have not been given out by the Mounted Police as yet. He arrived at the guard room shortly before 11 o'clock, in the custody of Sergeant Brandy and will be tried in due course by Capt. Dwyer on breaking proof. It is probable that an inquiry will be held into the circumstances through which he found an opportunity to get away.

HE SAID: "MY PEOPLE DO NOT WANT IT."

Look Out For The Ballot Switchers

An Extract From The Evidence Taken on Enquiry.

Q. What was your part, switching ballots? A. Well, I instructed others to do it.
Q. You instructed others to switch ballots—who were you with ballots? A. The deputy returning officers.
Q. Why were they to do that? Was it cheaper than buying votes? J. I thought so.
Q. What would bring you the deputy to corrupt and train in this switching business? A. Sometimes one person—sometimes a local man and sometimes another.
Q. Did O'Connor do that? A. Yes.
Q. Was he the man whose word you would have to take before you would train him? A. He would bring him in and if I found a man was satisfactory, I would take him, no matter what O'Connor said.
By his worship:
Q. You would train him as a returning officer? A. Yes, his duties.
By Mr. DuVernet:
Q. The principal thing was to switch ballots. If there was Smith and Jones running the votes that would appear for Smith would go for Jones? A. That is right.
Q. You used to do that yourself? A. I did.
Q. How many have you switched in one place in that race? A. Probably 25 or 27, and may be more.
Q. And they would appoint you to a constituency where you didn't belong as a deputy returning officer? A. They did.
Q. For the express purpose of switching votes? A. I suppose so.
Q. You knew that? Who did that in the West Elgin case? A. Who appointed me?
Q. Yes? A. The gentleman who is sheriff.
SWITCH 4 TO 23 RACE.
Q. How high would you run up with these fraudulent deputies—how many in one constituency? A. Eight or ten up as low as four or five.
Q. It depended on whether it was a close constituency or not? A. Yes.
Q. You were unable to meet all the exigencies of the case? A. Quite.
Q. And do you know how many ballots those deputies would switch—how many they would forge? A. Yes.
Q. How many? A. Some would forge five and some would go as high as twenty-three, I think that was the highest of any person doing.
Q. How much would they get a ballot? A. Different prices.
Q. What was the regulation price? A. $5 a ballot for the deputy? A. $5.
By his worship:
Q. For every one that he switched. A. Yes.
EXPLANATION BY THE MASTER.
Q. Just show his worship how it was done? A. I think I can explain the thing. I am acting as a deputy returning officer and two gentlemen are running, of course, one a Conservative and one a Liberal, and I am working in the interests of the Liberal, why, I empty the ballots out of them so that they are infilled and then I drop the ballots into the box and it is for Mr. Denison, I call somebody else.
Q. Would you open it and call out and they were not looking at the ballot? A. No, a person has a right to look at the ballot.
Mr. DuVernet: The deputy is the only one that has a right to look.
Q. Would you allow people to see how the ballots were? A. No, sir.
Q. What is the good of having scrutineers? A. They are to check off.
Hearingship: The deputy returning officer has a right to elect a number then?
Mr. DuVernet: It has been done for years.
Q. It is just done as that way, call out when you read it? A. The reverse of what it is.
Q. And you did that in West Elgin election yourself? A. Yes.
Q. With the Conservative scrutineers watching you? A. They were there to watch me.
Q. They knew about you? A. I do not know.
Q. You switched how many? A. I think twenty-seven. I think it was twenty-seven difference.
Q. You switched twenty-seven.
That would be, I suppose, twenty-seven of a difference you made? A. No. Thirteen. Twelve nineteen is thirty-eight. The majority was usually from twelve to seventeen the other way, and I put it twenty-seven the way I wanted it.
FIVE DOLLARS FOR SWITCHED BALLOTS.
Q. How were they paid for this when you made an arrangement with any man? A. So much per ballot.
Q. For every ballot he switched? A. Yes.
Q. Now then, what check had you on him, for the ballots he did switch? A. His word, as a rule.
Q. If he said he had switched ten ballots you would say, very well, we will pay you for ten? A. Yes.
Q. Did you any way of checking it? A. In one election we did.
Q. How? A. Dominion election.
Q. How was that done—how did you check it? A. Got the ballots in that case the ballots were really switched, they would never be taken, but they were never in the box.
Q. And others put in? A. Yes, other ones put in.
Q. Spoiled ballot? A. No, spoiled ballots would not count.
Q. How would it be? A. A good ballot would be substituted in place of the one handed to the elector by the deputy returning officer.
The returning officer would have a ballot exactly like this for the candidate you were working for and he would have that rolled up? A. Folded up.
Q. And when one came, that he thought he was going to vote the other way—he couldn't see it? A. No.
Q. He would make sure? A. If you had the scrutineer he would instruct you that he was a Conservative to their knowledge.
Q. They would instruct you who would vote the other way? A. When you would get the tip he was a Conservative and you wanted to make a bit out of him you would substitute the ballot.
ANOTHER WAY.
Q. How would that be done? Were they hidden? A. He would keep them in his pocket—keep it in the palm of his hand and when you tear the counterfoil off you would leave the substitute ballot there—pretend to tear counterfoil and take the whole thing the elector thinks he sees his ballot and it is dropped into the box.
Q. He has the satisfaction of seeing it is his own ballot put in? A. At least he goes away with that impression.
Q. Now then, he would have in his pocket the ballots he had held? A. Yes.
Q. With their numbers on? A. There is no numbers in the Dominion.
Q. How with you account for his having the ballot—would you have printed to look like them? A. There were generally some ballots.
Q. How would you get those ballots, the ones you had ready? A. I would usually find them in a convenient place for my use. I don't know who put them there.
Q. Printed exactly the same? A. Yes.
Q. There was no number so it did not make any difference? A. No.
By Mr. DuVernet:
Q. You knew in the Brockville case where they were printed? A. No, I don't know where they were printed.
Q. You knew you were supplied with duplicate ballots? A. I knew I had them; they may have been printed here; I don't know.
By his worship:
Q. You would take out one all folded up and put it down that way and then tear away the other? A. Yes, and to tear away.

Q. And put the bogus ballot in? A. Yes.
Q. And then the returning officer would produce those that were marked as his proof that he had put in the others? A. The deputy would.
Q. Who would pay him the money and how much would they pay him again? A. Well, I arranged how much would be paid. It was left entirely to me.
Q. How much? A. $5 in the Brockville one.
Q. For one? A. Each ballot.
Q. Who paid it? Did you pay that to them? A. No, sir.
J. Who paid the money for it? A. Well, after the ballots were brought to me and I had seen what was right, I took the man to a room and they were paid there.
Q. Who paid them? A. Mr. O'Gorman. At least I supposed he did. I never seen him pay them, they would come out satisfied.
Q. They would go in there to be paid? A. Oh, yes, I arranged with them that way.
Q. Did you give them their ballots or give them a certificate of how much they were to get? A. Yes.
Q. You would give them a little memorandum? I would go to the door with them.
Q. And say $50 or $40? A. Yes.
Q. Mr. O'Gorman being there alone and they would come out? A. Yes, in this particular case you are speaking of.

Make This Up At Your Home

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the articles taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, which is said to be a positive remedy for backache or kidney or bladder derangement, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease.

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here of home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good apothecary pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often powdered in fraudulent allusions with splendid results, he could give no reason why it would not be as splendid remedy for the kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidneys, structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping the blood to filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

Stomach troubles would more quickly disappear if the idea of treating aise, rather than the effect, would be followed. Says D. S. Shop, a physician in practice—A tiny, made, and gives strength to the stomach. A rank also goes to the heart, and out the kidneys. When these "inside evils" fail, then the organs must be altered. Dr. Shop's Restorative is directed accordingly to these failing organs. Within 48 hours after starting on Restorative treatment patients say they realize a gain. $1.00 by all dealers.

Penny Wise

There is a saving that does not save. There is no satisfaction or profit in saving a few cents on a prescription and getting medicine of an inferior quality. Unless medicine is skillfully compounded by experienced persons, it is costly at first price. The thing to look out for, to insist upon, is quality. Quality is the only thing to think of when we buy drugs. If you want the satisfaction of knowing that your prescription is absolutely right bring it here. The price will be reasonable, no more and no less than the drugs and work is worth. No one can fill the prescription as it ought to be filled for less than we shall charge.

LOWE MY CURE TO ZAM-BUK

HAD PILES FOR 13 YEARS!
PAIN SO BAD AT TIMES HE FAINTED

One of the best points about Zam-Buk is that it cures chronic cases of piles as well as those of more recent standing. Captain A. W. Strachan, R.E., of St. Catharines, (Ont.), a man who has served his country in India, China, Japan and Egypt, says:

"Nobody has suffered greater agonies than I have through piles. For near 13 years this terrible scourge afflicted me and at times the pain was almost too much for me to bear—especially while enduring the heat and fatigue of foreign duty. "I think I tried almost every remedy known in India, China, Japan and Egypt. While in India I was in the hospital for three weeks with bleeding piles, and thought I would be compelled to give up the Service. "I have had to fall out when on the march as I could not endure the pain any longer. Once I was picked up on the field for fainted—the pain from the piles was so great that I had fainted. "An Army officer told me about Zam-Buk having cured a friend of his, so I decided to give it a trial. From the first anointing with this great heral balm, I was relieved, but even after using one box I hardly dared to hope it would cure me permanently. I had got so much relief from it, however, that I decided to persevere, and by the time I had used several boxes, to my great joy I was completely cured. "Zam-Buk is worth its weight in gold. It has cured me and given me now over six months of perfect ease—something which I have not had for thirteen long years! I trust this statement of mine will lead other sufferers to try Zam-Buk and prove its great healing virtue."
